Welcome

Don't Miss it!

Enjoy the Farmers' Market before it's over. The last Farmers' Market of the year will be Tuesday, November 29th from 3pm to 6pm. See you there!

A huge THANK YOU goes out to all of the wonderful volunteers and committee members that donate

Give Thanks Downtown

November's First Friday will offer a variety of things to do for the whole family, with candle bags to light your way. Reggie Stanley will host a "What I am Thankful for" activity for kids to write on the turkey feathers to make sure he has his feathers in time for Thanksgiving! There will also be a coloring contest and candle bags for the kids to decorate and be displayed during December's First Friday. Several entertainment acts are scheduled to perform as well. Be sure to get some cotton candy and cider to keep warm while you shop, dine, and explore. Bring your canned goods to the kids activity corner to help Reginald Stanley with a canned food drive to be given to local soup kitchens.

November's featured artist is Crystal Wagner featuring her formal approach. A combination of drawing, printmaking, collage, and sculpture, and an appreciation of the idea of context as it relates to form. Her work and more detailed information about her can be found at <http://www.crystalwagner.com/> their time in order to make the festival a success.

Many downtown businesses will be hosting specials throughout the night as well.

Main Street would also like to thank the City of Milledgeville Public Works Department for all of their hard work to prepare and clean up after Deep Roots.

This year's festival was a hit bringing thousands of people to Downtown Milledgeville. Proceeds from the festival help Main Street in revitalizing historic downtown Milledgeville!
