

Milledgeville Main Street/ Downtown
Development Authority
Senior Advisory Committee Roles & Goals

The Milledgeville Main Street/ Downtown Development Authority Senior Advisory Committee (Sr. AC) will help to enhance the organizations public image through clearly defining the organizations mission, accomplishments and goals to gain support from the community. This will be done through networking, attending meetings and most importantly taking on special project assignments.

The Senior Advisory Committee will help to serve as the vehicle by which the board of director's implements the program's work plan. They will implement the program's activities, provide a structured framework through which volunteers can become actively involved in the revitalization of our Commercial Business District and help to build new or strengthen existing relationships.
